II. Rationale:

The study habits are one of the monthly activities planned by the organization. This is a meeting of all the residents at the dining hall to study as one that is good for an hour on every Tuesday and Thursday at 8:00-9:00PM.

III. Objectives:

This activity aims to:

1. To cultivate a consistent and effective daily study routine among residents.
2. To provide a dedicated time and space for focused, communal studying.
3. To enhance participants' time management skills for academic tasks.

IV. Expected Output:

The development of consistent study habits and improved time management for residents. This focused study time should lead to better academic performance and a more disciplined approach to their schoolwork.
